

CAST IRON BLACK CROSS BASE DINING

COLLECTION: Table Bases

CFX22-DH

The Cast Iron Black Cross Base (Dining) offers a clean, practical foundation designed for everyday stability in dining environments. A sturdy central column connects to a four-leg cross base that spreads weight evenly at floor level to help minimize wobble and support consistent performance in high-traffic spaces.

The square top mounting plate provides a secure connection point for a variety of tabletop shapes and sizes, keeping the table firmly anchored during daily use. With its compact footprint and strong cast-iron construction, this base is an ideal choice for restaurants, cafés, and communal dining areas where durability and reliable support are essential.
