

CAST IRON BLACK CROSS BASE BAR

COLLECTION: Table Bases

CFX30-BH

The Cast Iron Black Cross Base (Bar) provides the added stability needed for bar-height tabletops with a simple, space-efficient footprint. The weighted cast-iron construction and wide cross-base design create a grounded foundation that helps resist wobble and tipping, even with frequent use. A rigid central column supports secure tabletop mounting for dependable performance in hospitality settings.

Finished in black for a clean, versatile look, this base is well-suited for bars, pubs, and standing-height gathering tables.
