EU-1056AC

The Ari Armchair is defined by a confident, mid-century-inspired silhouette refined through clean lines and precise proportions. Gently curved arms extend seamlessly from the backrest, creating a continuous frame that balances openness with support. The subtly angled back and generously proportioned seat offer a relaxed yet upright posture, while the sculpted legs provide visual lightness and structural stability.

Offered in three distinct configurations, the Ari Armchair allows for varied expressions of the same cohesive design—ranging from streamlined and architectural to warm and inviting. Each option emphasizes thoughtful craftsmanship, smooth transitions, and a strong sense of balance between structure and comfort. Well suited for dining rooms, hospitality interiors, and social spaces, the Ari Armchair delivers a timeless form with versatile character and enduring appeal.
