

AROMAS ARMCHAIR

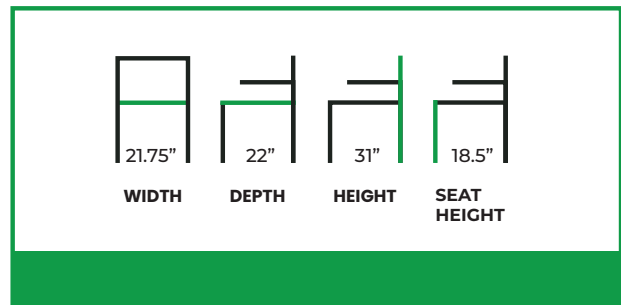

COLLECTION: Euro

EU-1258AC

The Aromas Armchair expresses a quiet, architectural sensibility through its clean lines and grounded proportions. A gently angled backrest and straight, structured arms create a composed, rectilinear silhouette that feels purposeful and restrained. The open frame lends visual lightness, while the solid stance of the legs provides a sense of stability and confidence.

Subtle detailing and precise joinery emphasize the chair's craftsmanship, allowing the form itself to take precedence. Designed to integrate seamlessly into dining and hospitality settings, the Aromas Armchair balances clarity of design with everyday comfort, offering a timeless presence suited to both contemporary and transitional interiors.
