

MADISON LOUNGE CHAIR

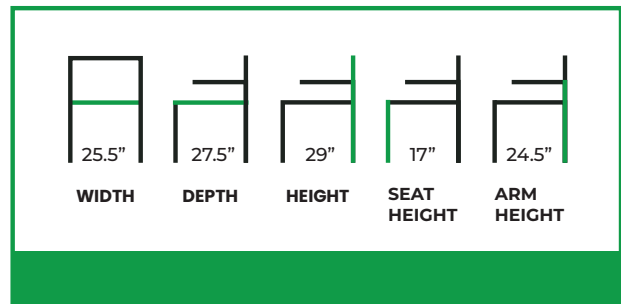

COLLECTION: Euro

EU-730LC

The Madison Lounge Chair with Panel Arms brings a refined sense of structure to the Madison collection. Its gently curved upholstered seat and backrest create a welcoming, supportive form, while the distinctive panel arms introduce a bold architectural element. Framed in solid wood, the arms feature inset upholstered panels that soften the silhouette and add visual depth, striking a thoughtful balance between warmth and sophistication.

Supported by a solid wood frame with tapered legs, the design maintains a sense of lightness while ensuring long-lasting durability in hospitality settings. The combination of sculpted wood framing and tailored upholstery gives the chair a versatile character, making it equally suited for lounge areas, guest rooms, and refined dining environments where comfort and design presence go hand in hand.
