

BOONE BARSTOOL

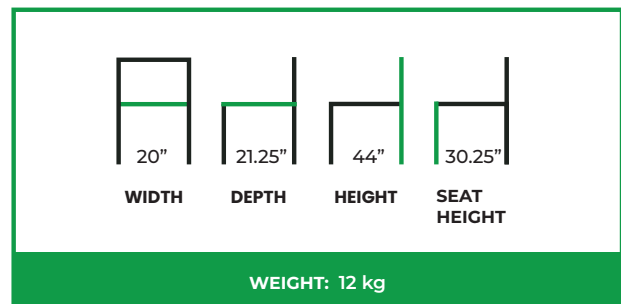

COLLECTION: Fusion

FN-3727BS

The Boone Barstool brings a refined sense of comfort and structure to elevated seating environments. Its gently curved backrest flows into a wraparound upholstered back panel, creating a supportive, embracing form that encourages relaxed seating without visual heaviness. The balanced proportions and clean lines give the stool a composed, architectural presence.

Built on a durable aluminum frame designed to withstand high-use settings, the Boone Barstool pairs lasting strength with thoughtful detailing. A reinforced metal footrest adds stability and everyday practicality, making it well suited for bars, lounges, and hospitality interiors that value both comfort and long-term performance.
