

RYDER SIDE CHAIR

COLLECTION: Fusion

FN-3912SC

The Ryder Side Chair delivers a clean, contemporary silhouette grounded in industrial durability. Built on a lightweight steel frame, the design features slender tubular legs and discreet cross-bracing that enhance stability without adding visual weight. A supportive backrest and generously padded seat create a balanced profile that prioritizes comfort while maintaining a streamlined appearance.

Subtle structural details, including the exposed rear support bar, lend the Ryder Side Chair a refined utilitarian character well suited to modern interiors. Designed for reliability in high-use environments, it transitions effortlessly between dining spaces, cafés, and multipurpose venues, offering long-lasting performance with understated, modern appeal.
