

ARMON BARSTOOL

COLLECTION: Fusion

FN-7727BS

The Armon Barstool balances modern utility with classic proportions, offering a refined seating solution for elevated dining and social spaces. Built on a sturdy aluminum frame, its clean, architectural lines are complemented by a ladder-style backrest that provides both visual openness and dependable support. The streamlined profile keeps the design light while maintaining a strong, stable presence.

A generously padded seat enhances comfort for extended use, while the integrated metal footrest adds durability and practical support. Thoughtfully constructed for high-traffic environments, the Armon Barstool is well suited for restaurants, lounges, and hospitality settings where lasting performance and understated style are equally important.
