

ELISE ARMCHAIR

COLLECTION: Fusion

FN-8055AC

The Elise Armchair brings timeless elegance to commercial interiors through its carved profile, round medallion back, and gently flared arms. Designed for both comfort and performance, it features a reinforced aluminum frame for long-term structural integrity, finished with wood-look detailing that delivers the warmth of traditional materials without compromising durability. Smooth contours and turned legs reference European-inspired craftsmanship, resulting in a refined silhouette suited to a range of classic and transitional environments.

Well suited for senior living dining rooms, boutique hospitality settings, and formal restaurant spaces, the Elise Armchair offers a balanced combination of elegance, comfort, and contract-grade reliability.
