

EDMUND LOUNGE CHAIR

COLLECTION: Lounge Chairs

LS-481LC

The Edmund Lounge Chair presents a bold and sculptural design that blends modern comfort with striking architectural detail. Its curved upholstered back wraps gently around the seat, creating an inviting and supportive form while giving the chair a distinctive silhouette. The rounded seat cushion complements the soft curvature of the backrest, offering a comfortable and relaxed seating experience.

A defining feature of the Edmund Lounge Chair is its exposed frame structure at the back, where clean vertical supports and subtle hardware accents introduce an industrial-inspired element. This contrast between the smooth upholstery and the structured frame adds depth and visual interest to the design.
