

LODGE LOUNGE CHAIR

COLLECTION: Lounge Chairs

LS-576LC

The Madge Lounge Chair blends clean geometry with comfortable upholstery, creating a refined and versatile seating piece. Its slim metal frame outlines the chair with crisp, architectural lines, while the upholstered seat and backrest introduce a soft contrast that enhances comfort and visual warmth. The slightly reclined backrest and supportive seat cushion provide relaxed seating while maintaining a tailored, contemporary appearance.

The open-frame arms and structured base give the chair a light, airy profile, allowing the design to feel modern without appearing bulky. This balance of structured metal framing and upholstered comfort makes the Madge Lounge Chair well suited for hospitality lounges, guest rooms, and contemporary seating areas where understated elegance and durability are key.
